

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT ACT 2005 (WA)

Section 67

SELF-QUARANTINE FOLLOWING INTERSTATE TRAVEL DIRECTIONS

The World Health Organization declared COVID-19 a pandemic on 11 March 2020.

On 15 March 2020, the Minister for Emergency Services declared a state of emergency with effect from 12 a.m. on 16 March 2020 in respect of the pandemic caused by COVID-19 pursuant to section 56 of the Emergency Management Act 2005 (WA) (Act). The state of emergency applies to the State of Western Australia.

I, Christopher John Dawson, Commissioner of Police and State Emergency Coordinator, now give the following directions, pursuant to my powers under section 67 of the Act.

DIRECTIONS

Preamble

1. The purpose of these directions is to limit the spread of COVID-19.

Commencement

2. These directions come into effect at 1.30pm on 24 March 2020.

Citation

3. These directions may be referred to as the Self-Quarantine Following Interstate Travel Directions.

Arrivals by Flight

4. Unless otherwise directed under paragraph 5 and subject to the exceptions in paragraphs 14 and 15, a person who arrives at an airport in Western Australia on a flight that originated from a place within Australia that is not a connecting flight from a place outside of Australia, must:
 - (a) complete an Arrivals Form and provide it to a Responsible Officer at the point of disembarkation; and
 - (b) travel as soon as possible from the airport to premises that are suitable for the person to reside in for a period of fourteen (14) days by the most direct route

- possible and taking all reasonable steps to avoid coming within 1.5 metres of another person at any time; and
- (c) reside at those premises for the period beginning on the day upon which the person arrived at the airport and ending fourteen (14) days after the day on which the person so entered; and
 - (d) must not leave the premises during the period described in paragraph 4(c) except:
 - (i) for the purposes of obtaining medical care or essential medical supplies; or
 - (ii) in an emergency situation.
5. Notwithstanding paragraph 4, and subject to the exceptions in paragraphs 14 and 15, where instructed to do so by a Responsible Officer, a person who arrives at an airport in Western Australia on a flight that originated from a place within Australia that is not a connecting flight from a place outside of Australia, must:
- (a) travel as soon as possible from the airport to a Quarantine Centre by whatever means instructed by the Responsible Officer and using the most direct route between the airport and the Quarantine Centre taking all reasonable steps to avoid coming within 1.5 metres of another person at any time, or as otherwise instructed by the Responsible Officer; and
 - (b) upon arrival, report to a Quarantine Officer; and
 - (c) await further direction from a Quarantine Officer.

Arrivals By Road

6. A person who proposes to enter Western Australia from a place outside of Western Australia by road must do so by Designated Road only.
7. Subject to the exceptions in paragraphs 14 and 15, a person who arrives in Western Australia from a place outside Western Australia by road (whether by vehicle or any other means), must:
- (a) if the person has entered Western Australia by way of a Designated Road, proceed as soon as possible on the Designated Road to the Checkpoint; and
 - (b) proceed as soon as possible to the closest Checkpoint after entering Western Australia irrespective of whether the person has complied with the direction in paragraph 6; and

- (c) complete an Arrivals Form and provide it to a Responsible Officer at the Checkpoint; and
 - (d) unless otherwise directed by a Responsible Officer whether as contemplated by paragraph 8 or otherwise and whether at a Checkpoint or elsewhere, travel as soon as possible from the Checkpoint to premises that are suitable for the person to reside in for a period of fourteen (14) days using the most direct route possible and taking all reasonable steps to ensure that the person not be within 1.5 metres of another person at any time; and
 - (e) reside at those premises for the period beginning on the day upon which the person arrived at the Checkpoint and ending fourteen (14) days after the day on which the person so arrived; and
 - (f) not leave the premises during the period described in paragraph 7(e) except:
 - (i) for the purposes of obtaining medical care or essential medical supplies; or
 - (ii) in an emergency situation.
8. Notwithstanding paragraph 7, and subject to the exceptions in paragraphs 14 and 15, where instructed to do so by a Responsible Officer at the Checkpoint or at any place or time thereafter, a person who arrives in Western Australia by road (whether by vehicle or any other means) from a place outside Western Australia, must:
- (a) travel as soon as possible from the Checkpoint to a Quarantine Centre by whatever means instructed by the Responsible Officer and using the most direct route between the Checkpoint and the Quarantine Centre taking all reasonable steps to avoid coming within 1.5 metres of another person at any time, or as otherwise instructed by the Responsible Officer, and
 - (b) upon arrival report to a Quarantine Officer; and
 - (c) await further direction from a Quarantine Officer.

Arrivals By Rail

9. Unless otherwise directed in accordance with paragraph 10 and subject to the exceptions in paragraphs 14 and 15, a person who arrives in Western Australia from a place outside Western Australia by rail, must:
- (a) complete an Arrivals Form and provide it to a Responsible Officer at the station or other point at which they first exit the train or other vehicle in which they are travelling onto land within Western Australia; and

- (b) travel as soon as possible from the point of exit to premises that are suitable for the person to reside in for a period of fourteen (14) days using the most direct route possible and taking all reasonable steps to ensure that the person not be within 1.5m of another person at any time; and
 - (c) reside at those premises for the period beginning on the day upon which the person arrived at the point of exit and ending fourteen (14) days after the day on which the person so entered; and
 - (d) not leave the premises during the period described in paragraph 9(c) except:
 - (i) for the purposes of obtaining medical care or essential medical supplies; or
 - (ii) in an emergency situation.
10. Notwithstanding paragraph 9, and subject to the exceptions in paragraphs 14 and 15, where instructed to do so by a Responsible Officer, a person who arrives in Western Australia by rail from a place outside Western Australia, must:
- (a) travel as soon as possible from the point at which they exit the train or other vehicle in which they are travelling onto land within Western Australia to the Quarantine Centre by whatever means instructed by the Responsible Officer and using the most direct route between the point of entry and the Quarantine Centre taking all reasonable steps to avoid coming within 1.5 metres of another person at any time, or as otherwise instructed by the Responsible Officer; and
 - (b) upon arrival report to a Quarantine Officer; and
 - (c) await further direction from a Quarantine Officer.

Arrivals By Ship, Boat or Other Vessel

11. Unless otherwise directed in accordance with paragraph 12, and subject to the exceptions in paragraphs 14 and 15, a person who disembarks from any ship, boat or vessel of any kind (other than an Excluded Vessel) onto land within Western Australia whether at a port or otherwise, must:
- (a) complete an Arrivals Form and provide it to a Responsible Officer at the point of disembarkation into Western Australia or as soon as possible thereafter; and
 - (b) travel as soon as possible from the place of disembarkation to premises that are suitable for the person to reside in for a period of fourteen (14) days using the most direct route possible and taking all reasonable steps to ensure that the person not be within 1.5m of another person at any time; and

- (c) reside at those premises for the period beginning on the day upon which the person disembarked onto land within Western Australia and ending fourteen (14) days after the day on which the person so entered; and
 - (d) not leave the premises during the period described in paragraph 11(c) except:
 - (i) for the purposes of obtaining medical care or essential medical supplies; or
 - (ii) in an emergency situation.
12. Notwithstanding paragraph 11, and subject to the exceptions in paragraphs 14 and 15, where instructed to do so by a Responsible Officer, a person who arrives in Western Australia aboard any ship, boat or vessel of any kind (other than an Excluded Vessel) that has entered Australian waters from international waters and who disembarks from that vessel onto land within Western Australia whether at a port or otherwise, must:
- (a) travel as soon as possible from the point of disembarkation to a Quarantine Centre by whatever means instructed by the Responsible Officer and using the most direct route between the point of disembarkation and the Quarantine Centre taking all reasonable steps to avoid coming within 1.5 metres of another person at any time, or as otherwise instructed by the Responsible Officer; and
 - (b) upon arrival report to a Responsible Officer; and
 - (c) await further instruction from a Responsible Officer.

Self-isolation principles

13. A person (A) must not enter premises in which a person (B) is residing in compliance with a direction in paragraphs 4, 7, 9 or 11 unless:
- (a) A usually lives in the premises; or
 - (b) A is also complying with the direction for the same period as person B; or
 - (c) A enters the premises for medical or emergency purposes.

Transiting passengers

14. Provided that at all times the person takes all reasonable steps to avoid coming within 1.5 metres of another person, a person is not required to comply with these directions (other than any direction to complete an Arrivals Form and provide it to a Responsible Officer):

- (a) to the extent necessary to permit the person to leave Western Australia before the expiry of the relevant period:

- (i) on a flight to a destination outside of Western Australia; or
 - (ii) on a ship, boat or any other kind of vessel which is not scheduled to disembark anyone at any place in Western Australia before the expiry of the relevant period, provided that the person provides evidence to the satisfaction of a Responsible Officer that the person will leave on such a flight or ship, boat or any other kind of vessel within 24 hours of the person arriving in Western Australia; or

- (b) if the person is a member of the crew of a ship, boat or any other kind of vessel who:

- (i) does not leave that vessel; or
 - (ii) leaves the vessel with the approval of an Authorised Officer who is authorised to exercise powers under section 67 of the Act and in accordance with any terms or conditions to which that approval is subject; or

- (c) if the person is intending to live indefinitely on a Pacific Island who is travelling through an airport in Western Australia in transit to the Pacific Island and does not leave the airport except on a flight to a destination outside Western Australia.

- 15. A person is not required to comply with these directions if the person is performing an Essential Service.
